Supporting Our Students. Protecting Our Schools.

Creating a safe learning environment starts with awareness and early reporting of concerning behaviors. That's why the Iowa Governor's School Safety Bureau developed Safe+Sound Iowa—an anonymous reporting tool for students, teachers, parents and community members to help identify and provide intervention for students in crisis before they harm themselves or others.

Reports are monitored 24/7 by trained dispatchers who immediately vet and share information with the appropriate local school administrators, law enforcement or other community partners—so outreach and support can be provided to the student in need.

How to Report

What to Report

Anyone who has information about a safety concern can prevent:

- School violence
- Unlawful possession of weapons
- Self-harm, and
- Other forms of victimization and threatening behavior.

NOTE: The Safe+Sound Iowa website, mobile app and tip line should be used responsibly. Like misusing 911 or filing a false police report, knowingly submitting a false report to Safe+Sound Iowa could have serious consequences, including being charged with a crime.

*In past school attacks in the United States, 92% of those who noticed concerning behaviors in advance were schoolmates.

People may not report warning signs because they don't:

- Want to be labeled, stigmatized or threatened
- Know who to tell or are afraid to speak up
- Think someone else will say something

Safe+Sound Iowa removes these barriers with several convenient ways to report safety concerns with all information kept anonymous and confidential.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I know if Safe+Sound Iowa is offered in my school?

Safe+Sound Iowa is available for free to K–12 schools statewide and involvement is voluntary. To find out if your school is participating in Safe+Sound Iowa, contact your superintendent or administrative office, or check the list of schools within the Safe+Sound Iowa reporting system mobile app or website.

When I make a report, how does Safe+Sound Iowa protect my anonymity?

When making a report, you will not be asked for your identifying information. Safe+Sound Iowa will only ask for information about the situation causing concern. If you do want to include your name, it's your choice.

If a concern is reported about a student, how is the student's information protected?

Reporting information is kept confidential and is not subject to disclosure under Iowa open records laws. Threat report information is only shared with designated school staff and law enforcement with a right and need to know to address reported concerns.

Are parents or guardians notified when a report is made about their child?

No and yes. Reports are anonymous, and all information is confidential. Depending on how the local school and/or law enforcement determine it is best to respond and address the situation, a student's parents or guardians may be notified.

Will I be updated on the status of my report and how it was resolved?

No. You can follow up on the status, view replies or add information to a report—see step 7 under “How to Report” on page 6 in this document for instructions. However, because reports are anonymous and all information kept confidential, you will not be informed of how a situation was resolved.

How much information do I need to know about a situation before I make a report?

You should make a report as soon as possible with the information you have. While it is true that the more information you share, the more effective a response can be, you can always add new information to your report using the Safe+Sound Iowa mobile app, website or tip line.
